Communicating With the Instructor

This course uses a "three before me" policy in regards to student to faculty communications. When questions arise during the course of this class, please remember to check these three sources for an answer before asking me to reply to your individual questions:

1. Course syllabus
2. Announcements in Blackboard
3. The "Question Center" discussion board

This policy will help you in potentially identifying answers before I can get back to you and it also helps your instructor from answering similar questions or concerns multiple times.

If you cannot find an answer to your question, please first post your question to the "Question Center" discussion board. Here your question can be answered to the benefit of all students by either your fellow students who know the answer to your question or the instructor. You are encouraged to answer questions from other students in the discussion forum when you know the answer to a question in order to help provide timely assistance.

If you have questions of a personal nature such as relating a personal emergency, questioning a grade on an assignment, or something else that needs to be communicated privately, you are welcome to contact me via email or phone. My preference is that you will try to email me first. Please allow 24 hours for me to respond to emails Monday-Friday and 48 hours on the weekend.

If you have a question about the technology being used in the course, please contact the Doane University Help Desk for assistance (contact information is listed below).

Course Catalog Description

This course is an introduction to instructional design theory. Students will utilize learning theories, including constructivism and the just in time learning strategy, for engagement of an online student. Students will compare instructional design models, such as ADDIE and Backward Design, as guidelines for organizing pedagogical approaches.

Learning Objectives

Course Objectives

At the completion of this course students will be able to:

1. Differentiate between types of course delivery (synchronous, asynchronous, blended/combination).
2. Define adult learning (andragogy) relating to the online learner.
3. Summarize different instructional design models (Backward Design, Addie Model, Gagne's 9 Events of Instruction).
4. Identify the instructional setting relating to the online learner.
5. Identify strategies that align with course activities, assessments, and content.
6. Evaluate instructional design theory in order to design an online, interactive course for an adult learner.

Module Objectives

Course Objectives	Aligned Weekly Objectives
1. Differentiate between types of course delivery (synchronous, asynchronous, blended/combination).	1.1 Differentiate between face-to-face (F2F) and online course delivery. 1.2 Define synchronous delivery. 1.3 Define asynchronous delivery. 1.4 Define blended/flipped delivery. 1.5 Identify per design project which type of delivery is best suited.
2. Summarize different instructional design models (Backward Design, Addie Model, Gagne's 9 Events of Instruction).	2.1 Differential between curriculum development and instructional design. 2.2 Explain other instructional design models (i.e. Addie, SAM and Gagne's 9 Events of Instruction). 2.3 Differentiate between designing academic and corporate elearning. 2.4 Identify the role of instructional designers in instructional design.
3. Define adult learning (andragogy) relating to the online learner.	3.1 Identify and define adult learning theories. 3.2 Recognize how adult learning theories impact course design.
4. Identify the instructional setting relating to the online learner.	4.1 Review the Community of Inquiry model (social presence, cognitive presence, teaching presence). 4.2 Review different types of interactive engagement (JIT versus assignment feedback), and student to content (assets). 4.3 Design a model for building online community. 4.4 Identify instructional design challenges for online development.
5. Identify delivery strategies that align with course activities, assessments, and content.	5.1 Review delivery strategies that align with adult learning. (relating to form of delivery) 5.2 Determine best strategies for content delivery. 5.3 Design course activities and assessments utilizing appropriate delivery strategies.
6. Evaluate instructional design theory in order to design an online, interactive course for an adult learner.

Course Requirements

Attendance Policy

You should plan to work on this course everyday. This means that you absolutely must have a reliable and consistent internet connection throughout the duration of the course. This also strongly suggests that you should not plan to take any vacations during this course. This is a condensed, fast-pace, course and it would be extremely difficult to catch up after a prolonged absence.

Online Course

This is an online course and therefore there will not be any face-to-face class sessions. All assignments and course interactions will utilize internet technologies.

Computer Requirements

Minimum computer requirements for the successful use of Blackboard:

http://www.doane.edu/about-doane/offices/its/help-and-support#min_requirements

Minimum computer requirements for success in this course:

- Reliable computer and internet connection
- A web browser (Chrome or Mozilla Firefox)
- Adobe Acrobat Reader (free)
- Adobe Flash Player (free)
- Word processing software—Microsoft Word or Google Docs
- Webcam and mic

You are responsible for having a reliable computer and internet connection throughout the course.

Email and Internet

You must have an active Doane University e-mail account and access to the Internet. All instructor correspondence will be sent to your Doane University e-mail account. Please plan on checking your Doane Gmail account regularly for course related messages.

This course uses Blackboard for the facilitation of communications between faculty and students, submission of assignments, and posting of grades. The Blackboard Course Site can be accessed at <http://bb2.doane.edu>

Campus Network or Blackboard Outage

When access to Blackboard is not available for an extended period of time (greater than one entire evening - 6pm till 11pm) you can reasonably expect that the due date for assignments will be changed to the next day (assignment still due by midnight).

Attendance/Participation

Preparation for class means reading the assigned readings & reviewing all information required for that week. Attendance in an online course means logging into the Blackboard and on a regular basis and participating in the all of activities that are posted in the course.

Studying and Preparation Time

The course requires you to spend time preparing and completing assignments. A three-credit course requires 144 hours of student work. Therefore expect to spend approximately 18 hours a week preparing for and actively participating in this 8-week course.

Late or Missed Assignments

ALL assignments must be finished and turned in to complete the course. Unless the instructor is notified BEFORE the assignment is due, it is automatically docked 20% each day it is late.

Federal requirements state that students must complete 75% of the course work to be eligible to receive an incomplete for the course. If students fall more than two weeks behind, they cannot meet this requirement.

*PHP Courses are not eligible for incomplete grades.

Rewrites

Students may submit their assignments ahead of their due date for review by the instructor as long as the assignment is provided a minimum of three days prior to the course due date. The instructor will provide feedback on the assignment for consideration by the student.

Submitting Assignments

All assignments, unless otherwise announced by the instructor, MUST be submitted via Blackboard. Each assignment will have a designated place to submit the assignment.

Drop and Add dates

If you feel it is necessary to withdraw from the course, please contact your advisor for full details on the types of withdrawals that are available and their procedures.

Subject to change notice

All material, assignments, and deadlines are subject to change with prior notice. It is your responsibility to stay in touch with your instructor, review the course site regularly, or communicate with other students, to adjust as needed if assignments or due dates change.

Academic Integrity

Doane University expects and requires all its students to act with honesty and integrity, and respect the rights of others in carrying out all academic assignments. Academic dishonesty, the act of knowingly and willingly attempting or assisting others to gain academic success by dishonest means, is defined in four categories:

- a. Cheating - "Intentionally using or attempting to use unauthorized information or study aids in an academic exercise."
- b. Fabrication - "Intentional and unauthorized falsification of invention or any information or citation in an academic exercise."
- c. Facilitating Academic Dishonesty - "Intentionally or knowingly helping or attempting to help another to commit an act of dishonesty," and/or coercing others to do the same.
- d. Plagiarism - "Intentionally or knowingly representing the words or ideas of another as one's own in any academic exercise," in both oral and written projects.

Course Grading

Grades, Grading Scale, Feedback

Assignment of letter grades is based on a percentage of points earned. The letter grade will correspond with the following percentages achieved. All course requirements must be completed before a grade is assigned.

A	100 – 90
B	89 – 80
C	79 – 70
D	69 – 60
F	59 and below

Feedback

Please allow 3-5 days for feedback on assignments. This timeframe is dependent upon the level of detail that I provide and the number of students in the course. I expect you to read my feedback and make changes if needed. If you do not know how to look at feedback using the My Grades tool in Blackboard, please notify me immediately.

How to Succeed in this Course

- Check your Doane email regularly
- Log in to the course web site daily
- Communicate with your instructor
- Create a study schedule so that you don't fall behind on assignments

Accessibility Statement

In compliance with the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Section 504, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, professional disability specialists and support staff at Doane University facilitate a comprehensive range of academic support services and accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. Doane University staff coordinate student transitions from high schools and community colleges, conduct in-service training for faculty and staff, enable the resolution of accessibility issues, conduct community outreach, and facilitate collaboration among Doane University staff on disability policies, procedures, and accommodations.

Student Conduct Statement

Students are required to adhere to the behavior standards listed in Doane University Policy Manual

Appropriate classroom behavior is defined by the instructor. This includes the number and length of individual messages online. Course discussion messages should remain focused on the assigned discussion topics. Students must maintain a cordial atmosphere and use tact in expressing differences of opinion. Inappropriate discussion board messages may be deleted if an instructor feels it is necessary. Students will be notified privately that their posting was inappropriate.

Student access to the course Send Email feature may be limited or removed if an instructor feels that students are sending inappropriate electronic messages to other students in the course.
