

DOANE
UNIVERSITY

Course Detail

Course Title	Advanced Organizational Behavior
Course Number	BUS 604
Number of Credits	3
Textbook Information: (e.g. title, edition, publisher, ISBN)	See bookstore for book choice
Additional Course Materials
General Time required outside of Classroom
Course Description	A course providing students the opportunity to conduct an in-depth study of human behavior in organizations. It focuses on the theory underlying individual behavior in organizations and the application of that theory to managerial issues that are present in today's organizations. Major areas of study include motivation, group processes, power and influence, and conflict resolution.
Program Outcomes	MBA 2,6,7,8,9 Outcome #2 is Assessed in this course MAM 1,4

Course Learning Outcomes/Objectives	At the completion of this course students will be able to: Identify and synthesize the relationship between human behavior and success within an organization. Identify individual and group behavior and dynamics in the workplace towards improving the success of both in accordance with the organization's goals. Realize and apply concepts that lead to the successful management and leadership of people within an organization. Evaluate the inter-relationship of ethics, diversity, and globalization of daily business practices.
Other Helpful details about this course.	