Additional Course Materials

Course Description

A course designed to introduce students to college-level writing, discussion, critical thinking, and critical reading. Faculty will choose a topic for each section in order to help students learn information research skills, to work collaboratively, and to gain an appreciation for interdisciplinary study and multiple perspectives. Each year, the instructors identify a guiding question, with related common student readings and experiences. Students will begin to engage in ongoing reflection about their educational experience. Students will work to engage in discovery, gather and evaluate facts and assumptions, support conclusions with relevant evidence, and practice effective communication.

Foundational Area of Knowledge

Liberal Arts Studies

The Liberal Arts Seminars progressively address the essential learning outcomes. In addition to addressing the appropriate essential learning outcomes and the habits of an intellectual life, each Liberal Arts Seminar will have learning outcomes unique to the course section.

Course Learning Outcomes/Objectives

At the completion of this course students will be able to:

1. Identify the value of a Doane liberal arts education
2. Utilize student support services and resources
3. Differentiate when and how to use the different types of college-level writing for assignments in future courses
4. Evaluate sources of information to discern credibility
5. Identify scholarly peer reviewed journal articles using the Doane library online database
6. Analyze personal strengths and needs as an adult student in the college environment.

BIG IDEA: This course addresses the learning outcomes related to creating a solid ACADEMIC FOUNDATION for students while preparing for a successful and enjoyable learning experience.

Specifically, students will:

- Understand the IMPORTANCE of a liberal education
- Engage in discovery of personal STRENGTHS & NEEDS
- Know how to NAVIGATE and USE resources available
- Create a sense of COMMUNITY
